

Privacy Policy Effective date: _17 May 2022

This Privacy Policy ("Privacy Policy") applies to information collected by Innovative Health Sciences LLC ("IHS" or the "Company") in connection with the IHS website at <https://www.innohealthsci.com> ("Site") and any related mobile applications ('Apps') and all related services (together with the Site and any Apps, the 'Services'). This privacy notice applies solely to information collected by or in connection with the Services. This policy does not apply to the practices of companies that IHS does not administer, or to individuals that IHS does not employ. We may update this Privacy Policy at any time by posting a new Privacy Policy to our website or via our other Services. If we make material changes to how we treat our users' personal information, we will notify you by email to the primary email address specified in your account. Your access and use of the Services, including all services available therein, is subject to this Privacy Policy. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Privacy Policy are defined in the Terms of Service.

Our Privacy Policy explains:

- What information we collect and why we collect it.
- How we use that information.
- With whom we share your information
- The choices we offer, including how to access and update information.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us at info@innohealthsci.com.

Information We Collect

We collect information in the following ways:

- Information you give us. We collect and store information, including information by which you can be personally identified ('Personal Information'), such as name, postal address, e-mail address, and phone number. This information is voluntarily supplied to us by you when registering or when using the Services. Some such information, such as your e-mail address credentials is required in order for you to register as a user of the Services. [You can choose not to provide IHS with certain information, but by doing so, you may not be able to take advantage of many of our Services.]
- Information we get from your use of our Services. We may also collect and store information automatically when you use our Site and Services. This information includes:

- Device information

We may collect device-specific information (such as your hardware, software, operating system, unique device identifiers, and mobile network information including phone number).

○ Log information

When you use our Site, we may automatically collect and store certain information in server logs. This may include:

- details of how you used our Site;
- Internet protocol address;
- device event information, such as crashes, system activity, hardware settings, browser type, browser language, the date and time of your request and referral URL; and/or
- cookies that may uniquely identify your browser.

○ Location information

We may collect and process information about your actual location and use various technologies to determine location, including IP address.

○ Local storage

We may collect and store information (including personal information) locally on your device using mechanisms such as browser web storage (including HTML 5) and application data caches.

○ Cookies and similar technologies

We may use various technologies to collect and store information when you visit our Site. These technologies may include using cookies or similar technologies to identify your browser or device. You may set your browser to block all cookies, including cookies associated with this Site or to indicate when a cookie is being set by us. A cookie is a piece of alphanumeric data stored on a visitor's hard drive or device to help us improve your access to our Services and identify repeat visitors to our Site or Services. Cookies enable us to customize and enhance the user experience on our Site or Apps.

The information we collect automatically may include Personal Information or we may associate it with Personal Information we collect in other ways or receive from third parties.

How we use information that we collect

We use the information we collect to deliver the Services and relevant information to you, including advertising, to improve our Services, and to develop analytics and aggregated data that allow us to utilize and enhance our Services and make future marketing efforts more efficient.

When you contact us, we keep a record of your communication to help solve any issues you might be facing. We may use your email address to inform you about our business, such as letting you know about upcoming events or changes to our business.

We use the information we collect from our Site to provide, maintain, protect and improve it and to protect our users. We may use information collected from cookies and other technologies to improve your user experience and the overall quality of our Site.

Our legal basis for processing your personal information

If data protection law applies to our processing of your personal information, it is important that you know the lawful basis on which we process your personal information.

We rely on the following legal basis, under data protection law, to process your personal data:

- Where we have obtained your consent, for example to action a request from you or respond to your specific query. You can withdraw your consent at any time, but we may still need to retain a record of your correspondence with us.
- Where it is necessary for the purposes of our legitimate interests to manage our existing investments and explore new investment opportunities, including conducting legal and commercial due diligence.
- Where it is necessary to comply with a legal obligation, for example under anti-money laundering or anti-bribery legislation.

Transfer of personal information

IHS is headquartered in the US. Consequently, any information we collect will be transferred to, and stored in, the US and other countries where the data protection laws may offer a lower standard of protection than in your country of residence. Where personal information is transferred outside the US, we will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that it is subject to appropriate safeguards and that it is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

Enforcement

IHS is subject to the investigatory and enforcement powers of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission. IHS may be required to share your personal information, including the disclosure of EU and Swiss personal information, to public authorities and law enforcement agencies in response to lawful requests, including requests to meet national security and law enforcement requirements.

Right to access, update and delete your personal information

If you are a resident of California and/or your personal information is processed in the context of our office, you have certain legal rights in respect of the personal information about you held by us, including, for California residents, your rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA). This includes the right to obtain a copy of this information on request, and the right to correct, amend or delete such personal information or object to it being used for certain purposes (including marketing). We may ask you to verify your identity before we can act on your request.

We will comply with any requests to exercise your rights in accordance with applicable law, and so there may be circumstances where we are entitled to refuse your request. For example, where permitted to by law, we may reject requests that are unreasonably repetitive, require disproportionate technical effort (for example, developing a new system or fundamentally changing an existing practice), risk the privacy of others, or would be extremely impractical (for instance, requests concerning information residing on backup systems).

Where we can provide information access and correction, we will do so free of charge, except where it would require a disproportionate effort (where we are permitted to charge a fee under applicable law). We aim to maintain any information we hold and our Site in a manner that protects information from accidental or malicious destruction.

To make any requests regarding your personal information, or if you have any questions or concerns regarding your personal information, you should contact us at info@innohealthsci.com. You are also entitled to contact your local supervisory authority for data protection.

Right to object

You have the right to object (opt-out) of your personal information being used for purposes which are materially different to the purposes for which it was collected, as described in this Privacy Policy (including being disclosed to a third party). We may refuse your request where we have a right to do so (for example, if the use is necessary to comply with a legal obligation). To exercise any of your rights, please contact us at info@innohealthsci.com

Information that we share

We may disclose aggregated information about our users and information that does not identify any individual without restriction.

We may share your Personal Information the following situations:

- With your consent.
- To fulfill the purpose for which you provide it.
- For any other purpose disclosed by us when you provide the information.
- If we believe it is necessary to investigate potential violations of our terms and conditions applicable to the Services, to enforce those terms and conditions, to comply with law or to protect ours or others' rights, property, or safety.
- To a buyer or other successor in the event of a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of IHS's assets, provided that the conditions of this Privacy Policy would continue to apply.
- To Service Providers, or authorized agents who are employed by us to perform tasks on our behalf and need to share information with them to provide products and services to you. Unless we communicate with you differently, our authorized agents do not have the right to use any Personal Information we share with them beyond what is necessary to work with us.
- To third-party partners ("Partners") that assist us with our marketing efforts, and, subject to your right to opt-out, with other marketers whose products or services may be of interest to you. We may collect your email address via cookies and pixels on the Website through the use of trusted third-party partners. These partners may also combine your email information with other information they have access to such as a mailing address so that we may serve relevant marketing offers to you via email and direct mail. If you prefer that we do not share your name and address with other marketers, please email us at info@innohealthsci.com.

We will not collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

We may also provide non-personally identifiable information, or aggregated information that does not identify you, to other parties, such as Google Analytics, for analytics, marketing, advertising, or other uses.

We may share your personal information by disclosing it to a third party for a business purpose. We only make these business purpose disclosures under written contracts that describe the purposes, require the recipient to keep the personal information confidential, and prohibit using the disclosed information for any purpose except performing the contract. In the preceding twelve (12) months, the Company has disclosed personal information for a business purpose to the categories of third parties indicated in the chart below.

Information security

We work hard to protect our Site and any information that we hold from unauthorized access or unauthorized alteration, disclosure or destruction. In particular:

- We review our information collection, storage and processing practices, including physical security measures, to guard against unauthorized access to systems.
- We restrict access to personal information to IHS employees, contractors, service providers and agents who need to know that information in order to process it for us and who are subject to strict contractual confidentiality obligations. They may be disciplined, or their contract terminated if they fail to meet these obligations.

When this Privacy Policy applies

Our Privacy Policy applies to all of the services offered and businesses operated by IHS but excludes services and businesses that have separate privacy policies that do not incorporate this Privacy Policy.

Our Privacy Policy does not apply to services offered or businesses operated by other companies or individuals. Our Privacy Policy does not cover the information practices of other companies and organizations that advertise our services and that may use cookies, pixel tags and other technologies.

Children

Our Services are not directed to people under 18 years of age. If you become aware that your child has provided us with Personal Information without your consent, please Contact Us at info@innohealthsci.com. We do not knowingly collect Personal Information from children under 13. If we become aware that a child under 13 has provided us with Personal Information, we take steps to remove that information and terminate the applicable account.

Third-Party Links, Websites, and Apps

Our Site or Apps may contain links to and from the websites or apps of our advertisers, affiliates, and other third parties. If you follow a link to any of these websites or apps, please note that these websites and apps, and any services that may be accessible through them, have their own privacy policies. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of other websites or apps. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our Site or Apps and to read the privacy policies applicable to such third-party websites and apps. This Privacy Policy applies solely to information collected in connection with our Site or Apps.

Changes

We may update this Privacy Policy at any time by posting a new Privacy Policy to our website or via our other Services. If we make material changes to how we treat our users' personal information, we will notify you by email to the primary email address specified in your account. Your access and use of the Services, including all services available therein, is subject to this Privacy Policy.
